Is there a way to block Drive Cradle 02 from NTT DoCoMo?

2019/11/19

Hi Tanya! NTT DoCoMo Drive Cradle 02 is a special gadget that you can use like fixture for the tablets like Galaxy Note and many other ones specified in the user manual. This device can be paired with their navigation service called Drive Net and for $4 per month you can use your tablet as GPS navigation system in your car. Drive Cradle 02 has also accelerometer and gyroscope sensors. NTT DoCoMo Drive Cradle 02 has many additional features like Smart Loop traffic congestion data from Pioneer, Information from VICS (Vehicle Information and Communication System Center), and eco-drive diagnostics. This device is supplied from cigarette lighter of your car and uses Bluetooth connection to pair with the tablet. So if you need to block this gadget despite all its features, you can use NTT DoCoMo Drive Cradle 02 jammer without even blocking the GPS signal by itself. Though if you want to make an opposite thing, i.e. prevent GPS navigation work but use Drive Cradle 02 as the fixture for your tablet, you can use NTT DoCoMo Drive Net jammer.
